Be consoled, I leave this earth, the land of misery, only to enter the land of peace.
(St. Catherine of Siena.)

CELINA VIRLEE,

ALEXANDER CHAUDOIR,

born in Belgium, April 21, 1868, and fortified with the last Sacraments, died at Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 3, 1937, and was buried from St. Joseph's church, Sturgeon Bay, Wis., Jan. 9, 1937.

Never waver from the road pointed out by conscience or duty, so that God may sweeten your dying hour.

Blessed are the dead who died in the Lord, from henceforth now, saith the Spirit, they may rest from their labors, their works follow them.

Beloved children, I leave you, but we will meet again in heaven where there will be no more parting.

Dear friends, do not forget me; soon we will see each other again in the beautiful heaven where no one will disturb our joy. Farewell and pray for me all of you to whom I was so dear while on earth.

She was a mother worthy of the memory of man; she hath looked well to the paths of her house and hath not eaten her bread idle. Her children rose up and called her blessed.

We have loved her in life; let us not abandon her in death until we have conducted her into the house of the Lord by our prayers. St. Ambrose.

"Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in Thee." (300 days.)

"Sacred Heart of Jesus, Thy Kingdom come!" (300 days)

"Sacred Heart of Jesus, I give myself to Thee through Mary." (300 days.)

Sweet Heart of Jesus and Mary, be my refuge. (300 days ind.)

Our Father. Hail Mary.
